

It is likely to be very colourful!

It is that time of year when traffic slows down and all the orange jackets come out to play on the railway. Minffordd Yard was a hive of activity on Monday Morning as the Dee and Merseyside Working Party, S&T Department and Permanent Way got ready to get out on track and do essential works.

A very busy trainload

This must be a special piece of rock!

S&T getting ready for their days work

Forecast isn't too clever, so a big thank you to everyone for coming to help keep this railway safe!
