

It was the event we had been waiting for - the New Name!

Our very own Glenn Williams at work

Hanging onto a secret since the 8th January, when I first took this photograph wasn't easy, and not helped by people telling me they knew.....

The crowds gathered round

The speeches were made

The curtain was ready to be opened everyone oooohed and aaaahed and I couldn't get near!

Just stop and admire the finish!
